Perfil de Eva Partida (instructora y profesora de AGILITY) :

A mediados de los años 80 comenzó compitiendo en USA en Deporte SchH con sus Boxers y consiguió dos veces el nivel SchH 3 con dos Boxers diferentes que entrenó desde cachorros. Luego compitió en Obediencia, titulado 5 Boxers y un Piccolo Italiano . En los 90, su Boxer fue el primero en Finlandia en conseguir el título IPO. En los últimos 20 años ella ha estado presentando los Piccolos Italianos y Podencos Ibicencos en Estados Unidos, acabando más de 30 campeones.

En los últimos 10 años Eva ha estado entrenando y compitiendo en Agility en USA, titulado 3 Boxers, 1 Piccolo Italiano, 1 Malinois y 2 Border collies. Durante los últimos 5 años ha estado estudiando el sistema y participando en seminarios de Agility de Greg Derret*, de Inglaterra, famoso Medalla de Plata Mundial, y cursos de Agility de Susan Garret**, de Canada, famosa Medalla de Oro Mundial y propietaria de “Say Yes”, el famoso centro de entrenamiento de Agility en Canada.

* Greg is highly acclaimed in the International Dog Agility world for his handling system and training methods. He is also extremely well known in the competitive field of dog agility, winning mayor national finals, winning silver and bronze medals at FCI world cups and team manager of the successful GB IFCS agility world cup teams. He has an Advanced Diploma in Animal Behavior and conducts Dog Agility training seminars around the world with his wife Laura.

** Susan has accumulated a total of 16 National and International Championship wins and has won two height divisions at a National Agility Championship on three different occasions. In total her dogs have over 50 top ten placements at National Championships including 14 First Place finishes and 6 Second Place finishes. Stoni (1990-2005) is still the only dog in history ever to win the USDAA "Triple Crown" (Grand Prix, Steeplechase, and DAM Team National Championship). In addition, Susan and her mixed breed dog "DeCaff" won the Gold Medal at the 2005 ESPN Great Outdoor Games. Every dog Susan has ever owned has won at least two National or World Championships. Susan and DeCaff kicked off the 2006 season by winning the Individual All Around and Biathlon Gold Medals at the IFCS World Championships held in Oosterhout (Netherlands).
